CEF Financial Aid and ASES Program

This form is used for CEF Financial Aid and ASES grant applications. Enrollment in financial aid programs is not guaranteed. The ASES program is available only at Buena Vista and Jefferson Elementary Schools. CEF has very limited funds for financial aid. The assistance given is usually between $25.00 and $50.00 per child that qualifies.

3rd Party Information

You must apply for 3rd party assistance directly with an outside agency. We have included 3rd party information and contact number following the Financial Aid Application.

Please note: Financial Aid will not be considered if the application is not complete or if required financial documentation is not submitted with this Financial Aid Application. It is not our responsibility to contact you if your application is not complete.

I am seeking financial aid for Kids' Care tuition because:

My total family income is less than $42,000.00. (For each parent, please attach copy of last pay stub.)

My personal salary is less than $30,000.00 and I do not receive child support or child support payments on time. (Please attach copy of last pay stub and other sources of income and describe on reverse. If child support payments are not received on time, please explain circumstances.)

I have recently been laid off work. (Please attach copy of last pay stub and describe on reverse.)

I am a student. (Please attach proof of enrollment in current semester and copy of all sources of income.)

I have an unplanned family circumstance that makes childcare necessary, although I do not work outside the home. (Please describe on reverse and attach relevant documentation, such as a recently dated physician's note.)

Due to extreme unforeseen circumstances (such as natural disaster affecting property or prolonged deployment for National Guard), I find the Kids' Care tuition temporarily unaffordable. (Please describe on reverse.)

Other (Please explain. Describe on reverse if needed.)
